SPECIAL FOUNDER'S DAY EVENT

Earl Schweppe will present Founder's Day: Paul Endacott and the Endacott Society at 1:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 7, in the Phillips Board Room at the Adams Alumni Center. For many years, Earl has been researching the family history of Paul Endacott, our benefactor without whom the Endacott Society would not have its home for our myriad activities. Earl's program with lots of photographs will be videotaped for our archives by Alan Swarts.

It chronicles the decade-long hunt for al-Qaeda leader Osama bin Laden after the September 11, 2001, attacks and his death May 2, 2011, at the hands of U.S. Navy SEALs Team 6. Nominated for five Oscars, the movie won one for Best Sound Editing. Run time: 157 minutes. Please join us at 1:15 for coffee, then a movie.

Foreign Film Luis Buñuel's Tristana features an aging rake (Fernando Rey) who has designs on his innocent ward (Catherine Deneuve), and a young artist (Franco Nero) who falls in love with her. It is a tragic story of the power of lust, love and revenge, and the quest for identity and freedom. Roger Ebert called Buñuel's obsessions melodramatic, hypnotic and almost disgusting.
